

Scully Five-Wire Optic Socket

Overfill Prevention For Road Tankers with 1-12 Compartments

Scully Five-Wire Optic Socket with Polyvinyl Cap

Description

The Scully Five-wire optic socket is used to connect up to 12 tanker mounted five-wire optic sensors to the Scully ST-35C Overfill Prevention Monitor via the Scully Plug and Cable.

- Labeled for Scully five-wire optic sensors.
- Caters to top and bottom loading.
- Rugged construction.
- Easy installation on tanker chassis.
- Lightweight polyvinyl cap is included.
- Pins for tanker earthing incorporated.
- Available with integral brake interlock switch for top loading.
- Optional mounting bracket with threaded captive plate and bolts for top loading socket.
- Optional integral pressure switch for vapor recovery.

Setting New Standards In Safety